89 remain, and conditions of disrepair threaten the health and safety of the occupants: the 90 Commissioner shall notify the Responsible Party of the conditions of disrepair in writing. The 91 Responsible Party will then have fifteen (15) days to comply with the requirements set forth in

97 said order, Commissioner or agents thereof may enter the Property to inspect, and further may

99 water and otherwise enforce the Sanitary Code.

104 Responsible Party, within fifteen (15) days of the property becoming vacant, shall:

128 have the discretion to determine when and how such inspections are to be made, provided that 129 their policies are reasonably calculated to ensure the enforcement of this section.

130 The Responsible Party of a Vacant, Foreclosing or Foreclosed Property who fails to 131 obtain a Certificate of Compliance as required herein, shall be liable to the City or Town for 132 expenses incurred by the City or Town in securing such Property, and for costs of bringing the 133 property in compliance with this section. The Commissioner shall provide the Responsible Party 134 with a written statement of all costs associated with inspecting, securing and marking the 135 Property, and for costs of bringing the property in compliance with this section. The 136 Commissioner shall record the notice of claim in the appropriate Country Registry of Deeds
137 forthwith, and shall have the right to file a civil action in the Housing Court or District Court
138 with jurisdiction to establish a lien on the Property for the balance due.

139 No Responsible Party for a Vacant, Foreclosing, Foreclosed Property shall allow said
140 Property to become or remain unsecured, or to contain an accumulation of rubbish, or to contain

141 overgrowth, or to have a stagnant pool of water or otherwise not maintain the property in 142 accordance with the Sanitary Code. If it appears that any vacant or foreclosing Property is 143 unsecured, contains rubbish, overgrowth, or a stagnant pool of water, the Commissioner shall 144 send written notification to the Responsible Party, requiring that the Responsible Party promptly 145 secure the Property, remove the rubbish or overgrowth, or abate the stagnant pool of water or 146 other non-compliance with the Sanitary Code.

147 All unsecured Vacant, Foreclosing or Foreclosed Properties shall be immediately referred
